As the parent or guardian of this individual, I understand my child may not use the library gaming systems until he/she is 13 years of age. I understand my child may use the gaming systems if I am in the library while he/she is using the gaming systems. I accept full responsibility for my child's use of the Public Library's gaming systems and agree to oversee my child's use of this service. I have read the attached Gaming Systems Use Policy, and I understand that the library's gaming systems are intended and designed for educational and entertainment purposes. I hereby give permission for my child to use the library's gaming systems and certify that the information contained on this form is correct.
